Wilson, page 80 - Abigail Chilson Sweatman was a pioneer member of the Baptist Church from the Old First Church which organized a reform movement by May 1st 1805 to migrate to Ohio. The group included some from Granby CT and relatives in Granville MA who were originally from Durham CT ca. 1750. There was a division in doctrine & practice with change of Ministers. Eleanor questions whether Abigail went to Ohio and if any of the children went with her. Page 35 - Ezekiel, Thomas & Joseph Sweatman were residents of Bedford on Jun 20, 1750. Bedford was a church state, Rev. Moses Tuttle, pastor. Page 64 - Jonathan Forbs, corporal, Minuteman under Capt. Lebbens Ball Page 321 - Revolutionary War Service: James, Jonathan & Nathan Forbes served under Capt. Lebbens Ball's Company; Lewes Sweatman & Ezekiel Swetman served under Capt. Aaron Col; Asa Sweet under Capt. Lebbens Ball and Joseph Swetland under Capt. William Cooley. See also "Harlan H. Ballard Collection, Pittsfield MA" Jan 25, 1954 Connecticut Printers Inc. Notes for Zenus SWEATMAN

Georgia.John believes that Zenus' brother Amos moved to Lee, Oneida Co. NY from Ellington CT and that Zenus was already in Lee when Amos moved there. There are no Sweatmans listed in the Barbour Collection - Ellington CT 1786-1850.

TOWN RECORDS: Town of Lee, Oneida County, NY May 14, 1821 Overseer of the Poor - Zenus Sweatman and wife Sarah, children Joseph, Aza, and Amasa(?) Amos (name used in Obituary), oldest 6 yrs - youngest 10 months. Per Kathleen L. Last's [observation "This is probably about the time that Zenus came to Lee. With 3 small children, he needed assistance to feed and shelter them. This would be the Sarah that is buried in Hall Cemetery. The handwriting is terrible as far as Amasa goes and could very well be Amos. Zenus apparently received some help at this time and not again - at least in the book that I'm looking at. Of course all this is my assumptions of the situation and he could have been here for quite some time and just been in a tough spot. It also indicates to me that no other relatives came with him or before him or he would have gotten help from them. Many of the early settlers were young men who came, built a cabin and then returned to New England for wives, children, parents, etc."

PUBLIC OFFICE: Zenas was Overseer of Highways in District #17 for 1834, 1840, 1847, and 1851 per Lee Town Meeting Records (1812-1860).

French, pg 465 showing that the Village of Delta was "in the S. E. corner (of Oneida County) on the line of Western; contains a Foundry, Tannery & 228 inhabitants". Letter also referred to 1840 Census listing a Zenus Sweatman residing in Lee NY; record lists 2 males ages 8-10, 1 age 16-20, 1 age 40-50, 1 female under 5, 1 age 10-15, 1 age 15-20, 1 age 50-60.

Who is George? Unfortunately this Census does not give relationships. Must be a grandson. I believe this is Nathan's son who was born Nov 1851 per 1900 Census. His brother Francis' obituary refers to the fact that his mother died when he was very young, the youngest being a young baby. Francis was born Aug 1852; Ally was born in 1860.

BURIAL: Sarah (also known as Sally) buried in Hall Cemetery, Point Rock Rd. Lee, NY (per Kathleen L. Last, Lee Town Historian, on 4/17/2000 - Kathy went to Hall Cemetery & found Sally's stone - it is all by itself with no others in the vicinity. She was hoping to find a base from another stone that might indicate that Zenas was buried next to her. By the looks of the ground there is a good possibility of two burials, i. e. the ground is "mounded" slightly behind Sally's stone, and a few feet to the left is another "mound" the same width & length. Standing back and looking, it looks like there are 2 burials, but with no records, no footstones and only the one tombstone, this is not enough proof.

Notes for John Francis LYONS
VITAL RECORDS-BIRTH: Mass. Archives. John's birth is "registered" in the City of Boston in Vol 125, pg 105, line 4723. Record states he was born "at Marlboro" on June 25th, 1859; Parents are Dennis & Mary, residents of Boston, both born in Ireland. Dennis is listed as shoemaker. Another birth record found in Vol. 133, Pg 168, Line 2 lists birth of John F. Lyons registered in town of Medford on June 23, 1859 to John & Mary Lyons, laborer, both parents born in Ireland. Obtained Certified Copy of Birth record for John F. Lyons born on June 23rd, 1859 in Medford, MA to John & Mary Lyons. Vol 133, Pg 168, R2 Year 1860. This could be the correct record; either Dennis J. went by his middle name (which could be John) or the person giving the information misunderstood the question and gave Dennis' parents names.

1860 CENSUS: Ward 7 Boston, Suffolk County, MA, Roll 522, pg 159, line 1341. Dennis Lyons 29, Mary 28, and 1 yr old male listed; Dennis & Mary both born in Ireland, occupation was shoe manufacturing.

1870 CENSUS: Roll 629 Middlesex County, Marlboro, MA. I found John Lyons age 10 listed. I did expect to find 4 other siblings along with his parents, Dennis & Mary!

1900 CENSUS: Roll 1456, ED 182, sheet 7, line 51, Philadelphia PA. John F. Lyons, wife Sylvia, and children Marcia & Milton listed living at 129 15th St. (10th Ward). They have been married for 13 yrs, both children were in school and John's occupation was "Agent".

OCCUPATION: John sold Wheeler & Wilson sewing machines in Massachusetts area, transferred to Philadelphia before children were born. Family moved to San Francisco after1900 Census & before 1906 earthquake, as they were in San Franciso during the earthquake(John Milton's death record information calculates that the family went to California in 1904). Then John went into Real Estate in Los Angeles where he bought land which was an old defunct chicken farm. It was later traded for an apartment house on South Olive St. Hollywood is now where the land was. Excerpt from 1995 article found in Sunset Magazine on pg. 20 "In the summer of 1915, so many movie companies had sprung up in Los Angeles & Hollywood that many boarding houses posted signs reading 'No dogs and No Actors'. That's when movie pioneer Carl Laemmle decided to buy an old chicken ranch north of town and move his new company, Universal Studios into the then sleepy San Fernando Valley."

1906 CITY DIRECTORY: San Diego City & County Directory, pg. 330, lists John F. Lyons; new and second hand sewing machines and house furnishing goods, 935 7th, res. same; in CLASSIFIED BUSINESS DIRECTORY, pg 712 under SECOND HAND GOODS, Lyons, J F, 810 6th; also on pg 712 under SEWING MACHINES, Lyons, J F, 810 6th

1907 CITY DIRECTORY: San Diego City & County Directory, pg 329, Lyons, John F, real est. 935 7th, h same; under CLASSIFIED BUSINESS DIRECTORY "Real Estate", pg 698, Lyons, J F, 935 7th. John seems to be out of the used furniture business in 1907 and I suspect no longer selling Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines as they are listed at the same address as Singer Sewing Machine Co. (see pg 706). The Lyons family are not listed in the 1908, 1909, or 1910 editions of the San Diego City Directory.

VITAL RECORDS-DEATH: Cert. No.2590, Volume 110 at L. A. County, CA Recorder's office. He died at County Hospital 1 day after admission from Erysipclas. The record says he was a widower at time of death and his occupation was Real Estate Agent. It says he had been in California for 15 yrs and he lived at 142 South Grand Ave at time of death.

DEATH NOTICE: Found death notice printed in May 25th 1915 issue of Los Angeles Times, which gave no additional info other than he was buried from the Chapel of Faris Carmichael & Co., found nothing further on funeral arrangements; found no obituary. He is buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Glendale, Los Angeles CA. SP #45, Tier G, Sec A; there is no grave marker.

A search of Immaculate Conception Cemetery in Marlboro MA reveals John F. Lyons' name engraved on family headstone. His year of birth is given as 1861 and year of death as 1915.
